ANNEX 12

Greeting by the Honorary President on the occasion of the 10th Congress of IBSSA

Well, here we are, celebrating of achievement in making our world a safer place by making sure that individuals, politicians and corporate are kept safe.

There is no doubt that data collecting and counter terrorism is high stake for IBSSA. But so is our promotion of individual self-preservation. It is a fact that a government can only do so much to make people physically safe. With IBSSA teaching people how to protect their families and employees, we are helping the state to do better. The message, it seems, is being clearly understood by many strata of society, and that is as it should be.

May I say, on behalf of the Board of Directors, thank you to all those members and friends who have helped made IBSSA what it is today. You may be sure that your help, support and commitment has been to us invaluable and we are looking forward to working with you for the next ten years.

With IBSSA's thanks,

HRH Prince Michael of Albany
Honorary President
